of the Nova Scotia Historical Society

no. 19, April 1977

Genealogical Association of Nova Scotia

This newsletter is issued four times a year (approximately January, April, July, and October) by the Genealogical Committee of the Nova Scotia Historical Society, with the cooperation of the Nova Scotia Museum. The committee is composed of the following members: Prof. A.E. Marble (chairman), 2391 MacDonald Street, Halifax; Allan Dunlop of the staff of the Public Archives of Nova Scotia, Halifax; Terrence Punch, 30 Melwood Avenue, Armdale, Halifax; Furber Marshall, Box 865, Middleton, Annapolis County; and Ross Graves, Upper Stewiacke, Colchester County. The newsletter is edited and typed by Mr Graves, published by the Nova Scotia Museum, and assembled, addressed, and distributed by Mr Marshall. Researchers working on Nova Scotia families who wish to receive the newsletter may do so on payment of three dollars to Mr Marshall, who looks after subscriptions; this covers the postage for a two year period. Mr Punch is in charge of back issues, and enquiries about them should be directed to him. Items for inclusion in the newsletter may be submitted to any member of the committee.

In this issue we continue our transcription of the Nova Scotia census for 1827, copied from the original documents at the Public Archives of Nova Scotia by Mr Dunlop, who has also alphabetized the lists and typed the pages on which they appear.

Answers to Queries

- Q-630. Théberge. According to Tanguay's Dictionnaire Généalogique des Familles Canadiennes, tome 1 (1871), p. 567 and tome 7 (1890), pp. 303ff., and the Dictionnaire National des Canadiens Français, tome 2 (1965), pp. 1282, 1283, this family seems to be descended from Hypolite Tibierge (b.1631) and Renée Hervé (b.1635), both of St.-Solenne de Blois, diocèse de Chartres, Orléanais, who were married in France. The family seems to have remained in Quebec; it does not appear from the data available that any of this family was personally involved in the expulsion of the Acadians. Possibly some member of a later generation married an Acadian who had experienced the deportation. / Lloyd J. Melanson, 2865 Agricola Street, Halifax, N.S.
- Q-686. Morash. Canon Harris' notes on Lunenburg County families at PANS show (1) Alexander Morash, born 1804, was son of Johann Just and Margaretha (Joudrey) Morash and grandson of John Johannes and Catherine (Finck) Morash; and (2) Alexander Morash, born between 1802 and 1812, was son of Michael Morash and grandson of John Michael Morasch (1728-1784) who went to Cole Harbour from Lunenburg about 1775. / Mrs Robert Tulloch, Box 24, Centreville, Kings County, N.S.
- Q-714. Tate. Melvin Danny (not Donny) Tate was born Melvin Daniel McNutt, son of John Noble McNutt. For one line of his ancestry see H.R. Brown's Valley of the Remsheg, 1973, p. 139. / C.L. Fillmore, 17 Archibald Street, Truro, N.S.
- Q-727. Laurilliard. The baptismal register for St Paul's Anglican Church, Halifax, shows William, son of Henry and Sarah Laurilliard of Halifax, was born June 22, 1815 and baptized June 25, 1815. Among the marriage bonds on file at PANS is one for Henry Laurilliard, bachelor, and Sarah Godfrey, widow, dated Dec. 19, 1809. / Terrence Punch, 30 Melwood Avenue, Armdale, Halifax, N.S.
- Q-730. McPhee. "Tailor Billy" McPhee of Upper Rawdon, Hants County, was born at Easter Bunloit, in Glen Urquhart, Inverness-shire, Scotland. (Scotland and "North Britain" are the same place.) He was three years old when the family emigrated. He and Margaret were probably married in Newport, Hants County, where her parents lived, and he probably died on his farm in what is now Upper Rawdon, where he had settled around 1794. / R.G.

- C-84. Eaton's history of Kings County, 1910, p. 506, line 7: 'According to Murdoch, William Brown was acting clerk of the Legislative Assembly in 1809, during the absence of Hon. Michael Francklin.' - Murdoch says (in vol. 3, p. 296), "in the absence of Mr Francklin"; the Hon. Michael had died in 1782, and it is James Boutineau Francklin, clerk from 1785 to 1827, who is meant. See Murdoch, vol. 3, pp. 8, 45, and 578. / Terrence Punch, 30 Melwood Avenue, Armdale, Halifax, N.S.

- C-85. Eaton's history of Kings County, 1910, p. 624 (sketch of the DeBlois family):
'ii. Sarah DeBlois, b. Aug. 18, bapt. Aug. 28, m. in 1800, Thomas Boggs.' - The year of birth and baptism, which has been omitted, is 1774 according to W.E. Boggs' Boggs genealogy, 1916, p. 40. / Terrence Punch, 30 Melwood Avenue, Armdale, Halifax, N.S.
- C-86. Eaton's history of Kings County, 1910, p. 784 (sketch of the Prescott family):
'x. Lydia Prescott, b. May 12, 1775 at Lunenburg; m. May 12, 1775, Rev Robert Norris.'
- Here Eaton makes a birthdate (an incorrect one at that) do double duty. Lunenburg Anglican baptismal registers show Lydia was born May 12, 1774 and provincial marriage bonds at PANS show she and Robert were married by a bond dated Oct. 19, 1797. / Terrence Punch, 30 Melwood Avenue, Armdale, Halifax, N.S.
- C-87. Eaton's history of Kings County, 1910, p. 625 (sketch of the DeBlois family):
'x. William Minet DeBlois m. Jane Pryor who m.(2) George Daniel of Neva, W.I.'; and p. 786 (sketch of the Pryor family): 'Jane Pryor m.(2) George Daniel of Neva, W.I.'
- For Neva (a river in Russia) read Nevis (an island in the West Indies). / T.P.
- C-88. Eaton's history of Kings County, 1910, p. 883 (supplementary note on the Webster family): 'John Webster was b. in England about 1500, was a settler in Hartford, Conn. in 1836, a magistrate from 1639 to 1655, Deputy Governor in 1655, Governor in 1856, and d. in 1661.' - Obvious errors have crept in here: for 1500 read 1600, for 1836 read 1636, and for 1856 read 1656. / Terrence Punch, 30 Melwood Ave, Armdale, Halifax
- C-89. Tupper genealogy, 1972, p. 630: '#5. Lucretia Tupper d. Dec. 17, 1907.' - Gravestone, Brookfield cemetery: Dec. 17, 1905; Brookfield church records also say 1905. / R.G.

Bulletin Board

A genealogy entitled The Descendants of Edmund and Jane (Webb) Price has recently been published. This couple were married in New Jersey in 1757 and ten years later settled on the Saint John River in what is now New Brunswick. The genealogy traces both male and female lines of descent, contains 275 pages, lists about 12,000 descendants and 4000 spouses and is fully indexed. It is available postpaid at $10.95 in Canada, $11.50 U.S.A., from any of the three co-authors: Dr Frederick Amos, 352 Blythewood Road, Burlington, Ontario; Gerald Keith, 17 Sunset Drive, Saint John, N.B.; and Mrs Myrtle Perry, Box 96, Havelock, N.B.

A Genealogical History of Long Island (North Grand Pre), Kings County, N.S. by Douglas E. Eagles is now in process of publication. Mr Eagles' account of the settling and development of the area is followed by genealogies he has compiled of families who lived there, including among others Allen, Bennett, Davison, Eagles, Faulkner, Fullerton, Gould, Hamilton, Palmetter, Reid, Stewart, Walsh, and Woodworth. There are photographs, full page maps illustrating the early land divisions and sites of homes for the 200+ years of settlement, and an index of over 1300 names. The 130-page book may be ordered from the author at 285 North College Avenue, Sarnia, Ontario.

The Atlantic Canada Institute has again arranged for a Genealogical Workshop to be included in the programme for its summer school, held at the Prince Edward Island University campus in Charlottetown. The course will be given during the second week of the summer school (July 18-22), will be taught by the editor of this newsletter, and will take the form of five two-hour afternoon sessions, including also visits to local registry offices and the P.E.I. Archives for those wanting guided assistance in researching. It will deal basically with methods and sources of research, with organizing of information, and (if enough are interested) with preparing for publication; the material to be covered will be adapted to meet the wishes of participants. Other courses offered include Atlantic history, economy, architecture, literature, folklore, heritage preservation, rum running, antique cars, and Micmac culture; further information may be obtained from the Director, ACI Summer School, University of Prince Edward Island, Charlottetown, P.E.I.
