

Genealogical Newsletterof the Nova Scotia Historical Society

no. 2, May 1972

This newsletter is a project of the Genealogical Committee of the Nova Scotia Historical Society. Copies are available for those interested in genealogical research in this province. In our second issue we have a further list of Nova Scotia families presently being researched, a list of completed genealogies available at the Public Archives of Nova Scotia and further listings of sources for research, prepared by Allan Dunlop of the Archives staff, a member of the Committee. Distribution of this newsletter is in charge of Furber Marshall of 2526 Oxford St., Halifax, and it is edited by Ross Graves of Upper Stewiacke, Colchester County, both of whom are also members of the Committee. Individuals who wish specific questions on Nova Scotia families included in future issues of this newsletter should submit them to any of the above or to the chairman of the Committee, Prof. A.E. Marble of 50 Brentwood Drive, Timberlea, N.S.
